

RKY CAMP

ON EAGLE LAKE

2021 Family Cabin Rental Program

General Information

The Family Cabin Rental Program is designed to welcome families back to RKY Camp for a largely self-led get away from home this summer. RKY Camp will provide each group with two cabins in proximity for a 5-night experience on Eagle Lake, 50 minutes north of Kingston.

Food service will be provided by RKY's incredible kitchen staff, though whether it is delivered as in-person dining or outdoor take out will be determined in the coming months with guidance from local public health.

Please read through the following guide carefully as it should answer most question you have!

Please note that this program is subject to cancellation due to the on-going pandemic conditions and local public health restrictions.

Currently, we are unable to welcome families from outside of Ontario.

How do I book a cabin rental for one of the above weeks?

Cabin rental bookings will be placed through our online registration software here beginning Wednesday June 2 at 8am. Families will be able to claim an available spot and will have to pay a non-refundable $50 booking deposit.

Once your spot is confirmed online, you can complete the registration form available on our website and identify how many family members/ages of each will be a part of your group. This will allow us to create an accurate invoice in advance of your arrival at RKY Camp in July/August 2021.

Any fees paid towards your campers' 2021 cancelled camp can be applied to this program. A final invoice will be sent to you in advance of your arrival to allow for credit card or cheque payment.

Families who were awarded campership subsidy for the cancelled 2020 and 2021 summer camps will be able to apply that same percentage to their 2021 Family Cabin Rental. If you had not previously applied for subsidy but need assistance with these fees, you can apply to have a percentage of your fees subsidized by emailing director@rkycamp.org.

Families that wish to visit at RKY Camp at the same time will have to coordinate their online bookings together. We will work to assign requested families cabins in closer proximity.

Families may also choose to come for less days, however, to ensure this program remains financially viable we will not be able to prorate individual fees for time not spent at RKY during the booking.

If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions please contact us directly at fun@rkycamp.org.

Cancellation Policy

- Requests for cancellations or refunds must be made in writing and submitted to RKY Camp at fun@rkycamp.org.

Upon arrival at RKY Camp, families will check in at the parking lot in front of the new Homestead dining hall facility. Guests will be greeted by an RKY Camp staff and will be asked to complete an electronic health screening form (including a temperature check and rapid COVID-19 test).

Check-out

Check-out time for cabins and the cottage will be at 12 noon on your last day.

- RKY Camp assumes no responsibility for loss of property however caused or damage to vehicle or theft of contents.

Food Service by RKY Camp

While we are still awaiting public health guidance on how meals will be served for Family Cabin Rentals, we are prepared to provide you with well balanced, tasty, and family-friendly meals during your stay.

RKY can meet most dietary restrictions and food allergies with enough notice (vegetarian, vegan, no dairy, gluten free, etc.). The form where you will list names/ages of family's members will also include space to list any dietary restrictions you need accommodated during your stay.

Arrival day will provide you with dinner and departure day will provide a later brunch before your departure. All days in between (Wednesday through Saturday) we will provide 3 meals per day.

Snacks will not be provided during the day, so we welcome you to bring your own to store in your cabin in animal proof containers. Please note that only Wellness Cottage renters will have access to a fridge in their cabin.

First Aid and Medical Emergencies

While RKY Camp staff are on call for advice and assistance, the health and wellbeing of your group is in your hands. All families are required to bring a first aid kit and ensure that they have the appropriate skills to provide basic first aid.

In the event of a life-threatening emergency, please call 911 and then immediately call the on-call RKY phone (provided during on-site check-in) so that we can coordinate with emergency services. In the event of a non-emergency first aid situation where you require assistance, please call the on-call phone.

Animal Encounters

While uncommon, it is possible that you will encounter wildlife while on our property. The best way to avoid an unwanted encounter is to store food, garbage, and any other scented products carefully.

Ticks

We do have ticks at certain times of the year around our site, and while uncommon, it is possible that you will come across one. The best defence against ticks is to avoid long grassy areas and small trees/bushes, wear light-coloured long-sleeves and pants tucks into socks, and to use bug repellent. We recommend doing a daily “tick check” to make sure there are no ticks on your body.

Raccoons

Raccoons are commonly found trying to break into food barrels and garbage storage at nighttime but will also come out during the day if food is left unattended. The best way to keep them out of your site is to ensure your food is stored appropriately at nighttime, or when you are away from it. They can be scared off by loud noises, like by banging pots and pans together.

Porcupines

Porcupines are often seen wandering the site in the evenings and nighttime. They are quite skittish but can easily get their quills stuck into skin, especially with animals such as dogs and pets. For this reason and there being no nearby emergency veterinary clinic, we are asking guests to not bring pets to RKY.

Black Bears

While unlikely to be spotted on RKY property, it is possible that you may come across one in the area. If you come across a black bear that hasn't spotted you yet, back away slowly and call the on-call phone number. If the bear notices you, remain calm and gather your group together. Make loud noises (like banging pots and pans, clapping, making animal noises) to scare the bear away, and alert an RKY staff. This way we can keep tabs on our visitor and alert other guests in the area.

If ever you are unsure of what to do or feel unsafe at any time during your stay, call the on-call RKY phone at (613) 539-0036 or (613) 484-2185.
